

UK-GHANA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE | GHANA HIGH COMMISSION, UK

Ghana-UK Bank & Build Fair 2026

Where the UK diaspora meets Ghana's banks, builders and dealmakers.

Canary Riverside, Canary Wharf, London

Two-day exhibition · October 2026 · Exhibitor Prospectus

A diaspora market at an all-time high

Ghanaians abroad are converting record earnings into homes, land and investments back home — and they are looking for trusted partners to do it with.

$7.8bn

Diaspora remittances to Ghana in 2025 — exceeding total foreign direct investment.

135,000+

Ghanaian-born residents in the UK, concentrated in London and major cities.

~3 million

Ghanaians living abroad, increasingly investing in property and assets at home.

4x FDI

Scale of 2024 remittances vs. foreign direct investment — much of it flowing into real estate.

Turn diaspora interest into closed deals

1

Qualified, motivated buyers

Meet a curated audience of UK-based diaspora ready to buy property and banking products.

2

Credibility

Exhibit under the credibility of the UK-Ghana Chamber of Commerce and the Ghana High Commission — the barrier buyers care about most.

3

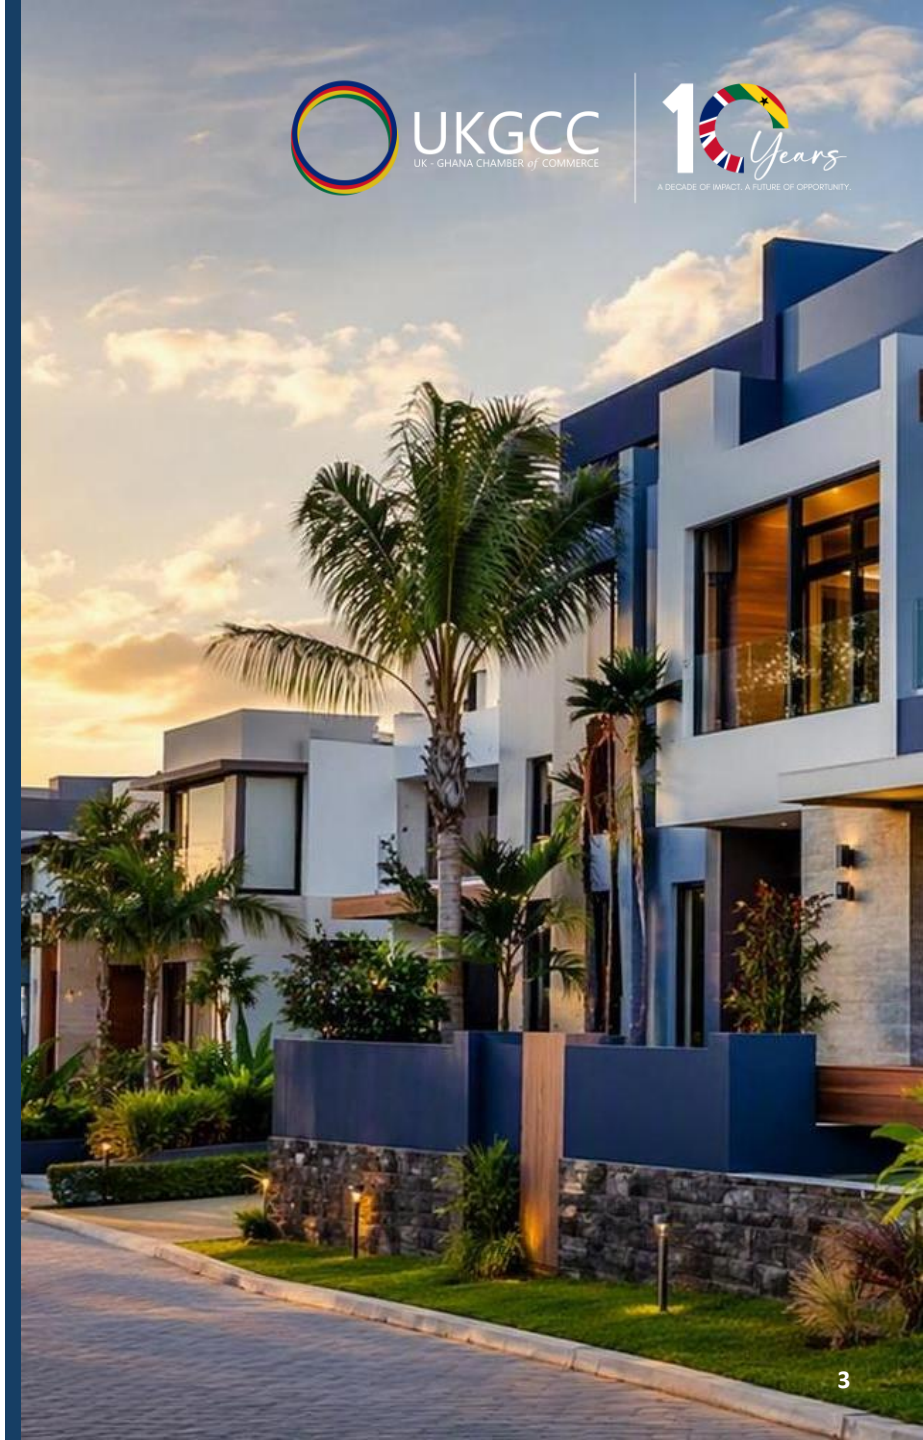

Free Advisory Services on-site

Legal clarity, secure financing and verified projects in one room speed up the sales cycle.

4

Create a pipeline, not just leads

Face-to-face or physical meetings build the lasting relationships that convert into sustained sales.

Built for the full home-ownership journey

From the first conversation to the keys in hand, the fair brings together every partner the diaspora buyer needs.

Banks & Mortgage Lenders

Diaspora accounts, mortgages and cross-border financing solutions.

Real Estate Developers

Investment-ready residential and mixed-use projects with verified titles.

Investment & Savings Product

Structured products channelling savings into productive assets.

Legal Advisory Services

Conveyancing, land verification and secure transaction support.
