Deck the Halls with Ghanaian Flair: Kempinski Accra's Unique Christmas Tree

Kempinski Hotel Gold Coast City is delighted to announce an exciting partnership with Adubea Jensen this festive season. Established in 2014 by Janet Adubea, this renowned Ghanaian luxury brand is celebrated for its exquisite handmade bags, crafted from delicate beads.

This year, we are collaborating with Adubea Jensen to create the most iconic Christmas tree of the season. Displayed in the lobby of Kempinski Hotel Gold Coast City Accra and standing over 5 feet tall, this unique tree will not only have gifts of love beneath it but will also be adorned with handmade bead ornaments and mini bags crafted with care and passion.

This tree will symbolise beauty and showcase Ghanaian talent, highlighting beads as authentic elements of Ghanaian artistry. It promises to be a 'must-see' attraction in Accra, aligning perfectly with the 10th anniversary of the Adubea Jensen brand. Don't miss the chance to experience the love, creativity, and authentic Ghanaian craftsmanship that this tree embodies.

Visit Kempinski Hotel Gold Coast City Accra this festive season and witness this extraordinary creation.
