PGL Adventure Camp

- Although children often refer to PGL as 'Parents Get Lost', the company actually takes its name from the man who started it all in the 1950s - Peter Gordon Lawrence.
- PGL Travel Ltd. was established in 1957 as 'PGL Voyages' and is a provider of school activity courses and adventure holidays for children.
- In the 1960s and early 1970s the 'PGL Experience' was aimed at young adults and based on three main activities - canoeing, sailing and pony trekking, with accommodation in tents.
- Presently, PGL has outgrown itself to be a major provider of adventure camps for children and teens across Europe. PGL works with many agents worldwide.

ABOUT UK-GHANA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

- The UK- Ghana Chamber of Commerce (UKGCC) was established in 2016 to promote trade between the UK and Ghana.
- It is the leading private sector organisation proffering trade and commerce support for UK and Ghana businesses.

ABOUT PKTS INTERNATIONAL

- Project Know Thy Self (PKTS) is an enriched creative and innovative programme designed to transform lives of children in primary, secondary and tertiary level and to be able to face the challenges of the world.
- Since 2009, PKTS has been an agent of PGL Liddington, organising trips for schools in Africa and the UK to the centre.

- The standard rooms are en suite and contain either bunk beds or single beds.
- Each room can take between 4-6 children.
- There are special rooms for adults.
- Each bedding is supplied along with a bath towel per guest

Dinning at PGL

- The meals provided at PGL centre offer a wide range of tasty and nutritious dishes which are attractive to children's palates.
- To assist young people in selecting a balanced meal, generous portions of fruit, vegetables and salad with plenty of carbohydrate for energy are served.
- There is also a mix of freshly-prepared hot or cold meals at various mealtimes throughout the week, as well and a self-service salad bar for children to help themselves to as much salad as they like at lunch and dinner.
- There is always plenty of bread and fresh fruit available, as well as hot and cold drinks
